Annex B. Ecotour Guide Script for Ninoy Aquino Parks and Wildlife Center

VIDEO/PICTURE/ACTION	AUDIO
1. WELCOME GUESTS/VISITORS	Guide: Good morning! Welcome to the Ninoy Aquino Parks and Wildlife Center (NAPWC). My name is Fides. You may call me Ms. Fides or Ate Fides, whichever you're comfortable with. Today, you will be roaming around the Park with me.
2. IMPORTANT REMINDERS/GUIDELINES/HOUSE RULES	Before we start exploring, please be reminded of our house rules. Our tour will take about an hour and after that you are free to explore the park to your heart's content. Just remember to follow the rules. First, stay with me. Never leave the group and fall in line. Second, lend me your ears". Listen to what is being said and if you have questions, you may raise your hand and ask them. If your participation is needed, please cooperate. And last, set yourself free. Forget yesterday and tomorrow – live today. Enjoy the surroundings and take time to appreciate even the smallest things.
3. SHOW MAP/ORIENT THE GUESTS ON THE PATH OR ITINERARY	(Starting point may differ based on the number of participants, age and the weather.) Right now, we are at the Parking lot. Together, we will get to know more about the NAPWC by familiarizing ourselves with its facilities.
4. START WITH A QUESTION (WHAT IF OR OTHERWISE), OR A TEASER TO ENTICE THE GUESTS ON THE PLACE...	What if a place sprawling with nature and wildlife can be found in the heart of the city? You found it! So open your eyes, breathe that fresh air and let us step into the wonders of nature. The NAPWC is the place where you can find comfort, beauty and simplicity. The various species of flora and fauna will definitely give you the "Tender Loving Care" that you need.
5. INTRODUCE THE WHOLE PLACE AS MAIN CHARACTER BY MENTIONING HISTORICAL BACKGROUND, ETC...	The NAPWC traces back its beginning in 1954. In 1986, it was named after the late Senator Benigno Aquino, Jr. In 1987, it was established as Protected Area but then in 2000, it was disestablished as

	It is now the right time to make zero waste possible.
f. LUNGSOD KALIKASAN (PHIL. EAGLE, BRAHMINY KITE, WHITE-BREASTED SEA EAGLE, SERPENT EAGLE)	We are here at Lungsod ng Kalikasan where you can see our various raptors such as Phil. Eagle, Brahminy Kite, White-Breasted Sea Eagle, etc.
g. NARRA TREE	Before we proceed to our last stop, let me first introduce to you the Narra tree. Characterized as sturdy, durable and can withstand strong typhoons, Narra is our National Tree. Filipinos are similar to a Narra because we, no matter what challenges we encounter, do not give up. We may be strong mentally, physically and emotionally, but we love truly.
h. WILDLIFE RESCUE CENTER (mini zoo)	The park houses the Wildlife Rescue Center which the DENR uses as a temporary shelter where confiscated, retrieved, abandoned, and injured wild animals are placed to be taken care of. Once injured or sick wild animals are healed they are released back in the wild to live in their own habitat.
7. CONCLUDE THE TOUR	Here is where we part. I hope you not only learned a few facts about the things we explored today but also learned to value and appreciate nature and wildlife more. I hope you enjoyed the tour. On behalf of the NAPWC, thank you for spending time with us and have a great day!

	Protected Area. On October 25, 2004, by the virtue of Proclamation No. 723, it was established as Protected Area and is under the management and administration of the Biodiversity Management Bureau. The NAPWC is headed by the Park Operations Superintendent (POSu).
6. INTRODUCE HOW A CERTAIN PLACE IS RELATED TO THE CENTRAL CHARACTER... a. BULWAGAN NINOY/LEONARD CO NATIVE GARDEN	Bulwagan Ninoy, formerly known as the Visitor's Center, is being used for official meetings, functions and events of the DENR. Inside the premise of Bulwagan Ninoy, we can find the Leonard Co Native Garden. It was inaugurated in honor of Leonard Co, a botanist and plant taxonomist, who had remarkable contributions in the world of botany.
b. LAGOON	The Lagoon is a perfect place to stare at especially if you are with the people close to your hearts. Its four-hectare area and 3 – 15 ft. depth will amaze you. Various species of fish, i.e., tilapia, catfish and mudfish can be found in the Lagoon.
c. FISHING VILLAGE	For only 1,700 pesos, you can use this venue for family events such as wedding and birthday parties. (Participants may take photos inside the Fishing Village)
d. TEA HOUSE	So if you want to celebrate your monthsary, anniversary or if you prefer intimate gatherings, you may rent the Tea House. That's 800 pesos for the whole day. (Participants may take photos inside the Tea House)
e. MATERIALS RECOVERY FACILITY	Here at the NAPWC, we ensure that wastes are properly managed. As mandated by Republic Act 9003 or Ecological Solid Waste Management, the Park strategically reduces and manages its wastes by segregating them and reusing biodegradable and recyclable wastes.
