DENR Administrative Order
No. 2008- 21

SUBJECT: Amending DENR Administrative Order No. 2002-08 “Strengthening the Coastal Environment Program (CEP)
through the Establishment of the Coastal and Marine Management Office (CMMO) as the National Coordinating Office for All Activities of the Coastal and Marine Environment Activities” by transferring the coastal and marine management functions of CMMO to the Protected Areas and Wildlife Bureau (PAWB)

Pursuant to Executive Order No. 192 and consistent with the Integrated Coastal Management Strategy provided under Executive Order No. 533, the coastal and marine management functions of the CMMO pursuant to DENR AO 2002-08 are hereby transferred to the Protected Areas and Wildlife Bureau (PAWB). As such, PAWB shall coordinate the activities of the DENR on coastal and marine management. It shall likewise provide technical assistance and policy guidance to the DENR Regional Offices through the Protected Areas, Wildlife and Coastal Zone Management Sector.

By virtue of this Order, CMMO shall transfer all its records, budget and properties to PAWB. Further, all personnel reporting to CMMO shall be absorbed by the Bureau. To facilitate the transfer, the PAWB Director shall ensure that the necessary office space within PAWB premises is provided.

DENR AO No. 2002-08 establishing the Coastal and Marine Management Office (CMMO) is hereby amended accordingly.
